

BENJAMIN R. RENBERG, M.B.A., CFRE
Partner

Ben Renberg brings to his clients extensive experience in fundraising in higher education and a commitment to serving the public good through work in the nonprofit sector. A quotation from Theodore Roosevelt captures Ben’s philosophy: “Far and away the best prize that life offers is the chance to work hard at work worth doing.”

As Associate Vice President at Baylor University, Ben served on the leadership team that directed the efforts for a $500 million fundraising campaign. Along with his professional experience as Director of Development for a major research effort at the Baylor College of Medicine and service as a Development Officer for the Methodist Children’s Home in Waco, Texas, Ben has proven his enthusiasm for hard work in the service of public good. In his consulting work, he understands the importance of two-way dialogue—with an emphasis on listening to and genuinely comprehending the needs, interests, and priorities of stakeholders. This belief in communication is paired with a sleeves-rolled-up commitment to setting and reaching realistic goals.

Ben received a bachelor’s degree and an M.B.A. from Baylor University. Ben currently serves on the Marketing and Development Committee of the Greater Houston Community Foundation. He also serves as a board member on the Advisory Council for Washington-on-the-Brazos State Park Association and the Epilepsy Foundation of Texas. He is a past board member of the Greater Houston Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals.
