

AMY B. YEATTS, M.B.A.
Senior Consultant

Amy Yeatts evokes the best in clients and colleagues alike through her poise, perception, and persistence. An effective team builder, she encourages her clients to take a leadership role in their own advancement. She leverages more than 15 years of experience in fundraising and a master's degree in business administration to help her clients resolve a wide variety of issues and apply best practices throughout a development operation. Her exceptional analytical, organizational, and communication skills seamlessly integrate individual programs with broad strategic goals. During her tenure with Dini Partners, she has effectively assessed and prepared the development functions of nonprofits for campaigns with goals of up to $1 billion.

Immediately prior to joining Dini Partners, she helped to implement a $14 million capital campaign at CHRISTUS Santa Rosa Health Care Foundation while overseeing the foundation's gift reporting, database management, donor research, and proposal writing functions. Previous positions in nonprofit organizations gave her experience in securing and stewarding major sponsors as well as managing large fundraising events. Amy earned her master's degree in business administration with academic honors from the University of Houston, and she graduated cum laude from Trinity University.

Amy has served on the board of the Greater Houston Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals, as well as the board of the Junior Partners/Women's Resource of Greater Houston. She has also taught fundraising courses in collaboration with Rice University and the Association for Fundraising Professionals.
